

QUIZAHOLIC

Event Overview:

Quizaholic is a quiz competition under NEXUS'24, designed to evaluate students' knowledge beyond academics. Participants will demonstrate their expertise in various fields including science, technology, current affairs, sports, awards, business, and entertainment. The event promises excitement and engagement with rounds involving audio, video, and traditional pen-paper tests.

Team Specification:

- This event is for individual participants only; each participant competes alone.

Event Structure:

The competition is divided into two stages:

Stage 1 (Preliminary or Elimination Round):

- Participants will take a pen-paper test consisting of 25 questions.
- No negative marking in this round.

Stage 2 (Final Round):

This stage includes two rounds:

1. Rapid Fire Round:

- Each participant will be asked 5 questions in one minute.
- Correct answers earn 10 points; incorrect answers result in a 5-point deduction.
- Participants can pass on questions if they choose.

2. Audio-Visual Round:

- Each participant will answer two audio or visual questions, with 30 seconds per question.
- Correct answers earn 10 points each.
- No negative marking in this round.

Note: A tie-breaker round will be conducted if there is a tie in the points table during the final round.

Rules and Guidelines:

- Participants must register by completing the online form for the event.
- All participants must report 15 minutes before their scheduled time; late arrivals may be disqualified.
- Participants must present a valid college ID card to compete.
- Accessing online sources during the event will result in immediate disqualification.
- Participants cannot be replaced after registration.
- The decisions of the quizmaster and event coordinators are final and binding.
- Misbehaviour during the event may lead to disqualification.
- NEXUS'24 is not responsible for late, lost, or misdirected entries.
- The organizing committee reserves the right to amend the rules at any time, with registered participants being informed of any changes via email, message, or WhatsApp.
